

1891. 1891.
THE GLOBE-DEMOCRAT
PROSPECTUS.

In issuing the prospectus for 1891, the Globe-Democrat can make no promise for the future that is not reasonably sure of fulfillment. In the Presidential contest just closed it was recognized as the leading champion of the Republican cause in the West, advocating the principles and the principles of the great party of freedom and nationality, and always the exponent of the advanced thought. We shall continue that course unfalteringly in the future, so long as the Republican party remains true to the mission on which it set forth twenty years ago.

The election of James A. Garfield and Chester A. Arthur as President and Vice-President of the United States, by an unquestioned majority of the electoral votes, secures peace and prosperity to the country for four years. We believe the new Administration will soon gain and steadily hold the confidence, not only of the Republican party, but of the nation, by its wisdom and integrity as well as by its loyalty to the power. The Globe-Democrat firmly hopes to be able to give to President Garfield a cordial and earnest support. It believes that he will do the right as he sees it and that he will bring to the discharge of his Presidential duties a clear head, an honest heart and a determination to serve his country to the best of his ability. Certain it is that no man ever entered the White House better fitted than he by nature, education and experience to furnish all we expect from a good President.

The Republican party is now more thoroughly united and harmonious than it has been in many years. There are no rival "wings" and no opposing factions in it. The campaign that has just closed welded it together in a solid mass against the common foe, and there are now no signs of possible division. We believe this unity and harmony will continue throughout Gen. Garfield's Administration, and will result in a long-continued lease of power to it. The Democratic party is divided and demoralized—defeated under the best candidate it has had in twenty years—and not likely again to present the unbroken front which the Republican party had to meet on the 21 of November, 1880.

While national rather than local in its conduct and purpose, the Globe-Democrat will devote special attention to the subject of immigration, doing the best to invite the attention of farmers and mechanics of the East and of Europe to settle on the fertile lands of the Southwest and especially of the State of Missouri. This subject has excited our attention in the past and now that there are four years ahead of us free from the turmoil and excitement of a national political contest, we will be enabled to give it additional thought and energy. There is room in the territory tributary to the great City of St. Louis for millions of new inhabitants, and there is land enough now untilled to feed the world if cultivated to its capacity. To invite them in pursuit of homes in the West to the facts capable of being shown on this subject shall be one of the special features of the Globe-Democrat.

No newspaper, East or West, is better equipped than the Globe-Democrat for the collection and publication of news from all parts of the world. Our staff of special correspondents covers all the news centers in this country and in Europe, and they are all instructed to spare no labor or expense in procuring the latest and most reliable information, and transmitting it promptly by telegraph. Our special telegraph service has been greatly increased and improved in the West, and it is our intention to continue in this direction, availing ourselves of every opportunity to improve this journal as an impartial record of current events and the world over. Our Weekly readers will get the full benefit of this service in selections from the most important of the dispatches sent to the Daily Globe-Democrat. It is our commercial reports the Globe-Democrat has always been unrivaled among its contemporaries. No journal in the West pays so much attention to fullness and accuracy in giving a faithful record of the markets from day to day and from week to week. In this department we shall also keep pace with the growing demands of St. Louis and the West in all that is to be expected from a great newspaper published in the commercial metropolis of the Mississippi Valley.

We shall aim, in addition to a weekly record of current events, to present our readers with a newspaper for the Farm, the Family and the Fireside. Special attention will be given to these several departments, which have been conspicuous features of the Globe-Democrat in the past.

DAY'S Kidney

IS STRONGLY ENDORSED.
Rev. E. F. L. GAUSS, Galena, Ill., writes: "For over ten years I had been a great sufferer from pains in the small of the back and region of the kidneys, which was most excruciating and at times almost insupportable. Doctoring brought no relief, and was finally advised to go abroad and seek the climate of my youth. In Germany and Switzerland, eminent physicians, after close examinations, declared my suffering to arise from disease of the kidneys, of long standing, and could do me no good. I was, however, benefited by the climate and consequently returned. No sooner had I been back and resumed my pastoral work, when the old trouble grew again so intense as to make life a burden. A few months ago I purchased one of Day's Kidney Pads, put it on, and the effects were truly wonderful. The pains at once grew less and are now, after wearing the second Pad, entirely gone, and there can be no doubt that I am entirely cured, as I write this some weeks after its use, and am strong and look like the very picture of health. I write this perfectly voluntarily, and it is dictated only by truth and gratitude. Indeed, I consider the Day Kidney Pad, God's agents and great benefactors of mankind. May all the suffering be helped as I have been in my earnest wish."

CHAS. DAVIS, 124 Myrtle Street, Boston:
"I have now used Day's Kidney Pad thirty days, and it has done me more good than any remedy I ever tried."
LAMORE & DEAN, Druggists, Milw., Mich.
"30 years in business"—"DAY'S KIDNEY PAD" is having a large sale and gives better general satisfaction than any remedy we ever sold."
CASPER WHITE, Folkestone, Lancaster, Pa.:
"I have been a great sufferer from kidney complaint, and after wearing your Pad 25 days I feel better than I have in 15 years."
Dr. A. J. STONER, Decatur, Ill.:
"Your Pad is doing great good here. It sells every day and gives universal satisfaction."
For sale by druggists, or sent by mail (free of postage) on receipt of the price—Regular Pad, $2.00; Special Pad (extra size), $3.00; Children's, $1.50. Our book, "How a Life is Saved," giving the history of this new discovery, and a large record of most remarkable cures, sent free. Write for it. Address DAY KIDNEY PAD CO., TOLEDO, O.

CAUTION. Owing to the many worthless Kidney Pads now being sold, we have decided to put our name on the Day Kidney Pad, and take no other. DAY KIDNEY PAD CO., Gen'l Agents, St. Louis and Kansas City.
